Three Inquests Held by Coroner

Inquests held yesterday into the deaths of David D. Wells, of Concord, Pling F. Hutchinson, of Walnut Creek, and the unknown John Doe, found at the transportation wharf in Martinez, resulted in coroner's jury verdict of death from natural causes in all cases except the latter named, in which case a verdict of "suicide from drowning" was brought in, according to Coroner Aubrey Wilson.

Wells was ascertained to have died yesterday morning from the bursting of a heart valve. Hutchinson's death resulted from an acute case of lobar pneumonia. The unknown, apparently a man of 70 years, is supposed to have committed suicide in a fit of despondency. No clue to his identity was discovered.

Texas Minister Goes On Trial For Murder Of Texas Clubman

Five Members of Jury are Passed During First Day of Trial

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 11.—Rev. J. Frank Norris, hell fire and damnation preacher of Fort Worth, went to trial today with the law of "apparent danger" as the bulwark of his defense and five of the 12 jurors in the custody of the sheriff. The five jurors seated today were: W. D. Miller, a former sheriff of Travis county; G. J. Brown, Austin, a meat cutter at a local chili factory; O. D. Moore, Austin, jack of all trades and at present a street peddler; Walter Johnson, Austin, a youth just past his majority; Will J. Dill, Austin, a former volunteer fire department captain. The tedious task of getting 12 men into the jury box to sit in legal judgment of the confessed slayer of D. E. Chipps, Fort Worth lumber broker and "man about town," was speeded up by Judge James R. Hamilton as the day progressed and tonight there was every prospect that a full legal set of the pastor's peers will have been selected and sworn before tomorrow night.

The Ku Klux Klan angle and the fundamentalist-evolutionist controversy was injected into the trial during the exhaustive examination of two witnesses, one who said he came from pioneer Texas stock that took an active part in the activities of the original Klan (Continued on Page 8)

DETROIT, Jan. 11.—Joseph E. Three members of the board of tax appeals have come here to take testimony, which is expected to last three weeks and will embrace a review of the entire automotive industry, with revelations as yet undreamed of by the general public as to the miraculous profits the Ford Motor company has made on a $28,000 investment since 1903. A battery of legal talent includes John W. Davis of New York, former Democratic presidential nominee and ambassador (Continued on Page 5)

DECISION OF COURT ON G. G. BRIDGE LAUDED

Growth of all central and northern California will be stimulated by the Supreme Court decision upholding the Golden Gate bridge, according to Thomas Allan Box, chairman of the Board of Bancrofts corporation, and chairman of bridging the Golden Gate association. In a statement issued today, Box said: "Quick, cheap, and easy transportation to and from San Francisco is assured as a result of this decision. The prospect of early construction of a bridge will keep the Redwood Empire counties lying north of San Francisco on their toes, and their enormous natural resources will reach development much earlier than would have been the case had the bridge project been further delayed. "The same law under which the Golden Gate bridge is to be built can be used for other needed bridges across San Francisco bay. We of the Bridging the Golden Gate association are gratified that it fell to us to be the pioneers in obtaining necessary legislation and in establishing for all time a sound and feasible procedure for carrying out enterprises of this magnitude. "The next step will be election by the supervisors of the various counties of a bridge board that will proceed with the necessary soundings and surveys and the preparation of a definite project for the approval of voters in the district. While the delay is unfortunate, we now have the satisfaction of knowing that whatever is done from now on rests on a solid basis of legality. We have built our first sound foundation, if it is only a legal one."

Divorce Will Be Contested By Comedian

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Every step of the divorce suit filed Monday by Mrs. Lita Grey Chaplin against Charlie Chaplin, world famous screen comedian, will be bitterly fought, Lloyd Wright, the defendant's attorney, declared today. His statement followed an announcement by Young and Young, counsel for Mrs. Chaplin, that the court may appoint a receiver despite Chaplin's absence and before he has actually been served with the divorce papers. Chaplin's lawyer was in a fighting mood today. "All I can say right now, of course, is that I'll fight the case to the bitter end," he said. "This means contesting every step of the plaintiff. Although I merely glanced at the complaint and have not examined it thoroughly, it appears to me on the surface to be composed mainly of piffle." Lyndol Young, chief of the opposing legal forces, was just as determined. "We expect to press for quick action in this case," he asserted. "There will be no long drawn out legal delays if we can prevent them. The question of the appointment of a receiver for the community property will be a fitting preliminary skirmish to the real battle to follow." Mrs. Chaplin has asked in her (Continued on Page 8)

U. S. MAY MAKE ALCOHOL FOR MEDICINAL USE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Creation of a semi-federal corporation to manufacture medicinal liquor, will enable the federal dry forces to strike a crushing blow at the bootleg booze traffic, Brig. Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, federal dry chief, told the house ways and means committee today. Appearing to urge favorable action by congress on the treasury bill, calling for such a corporation, General Andrews declared: "Once the corporation gets underway, the bootleggers no longer will be able to fool the public into believing they are selling them genuine brands of whiskey. "The product of the corporation will be carefully watched from the time it leaves the plant to the drug stores that sell it." Establishment of the semi-federal corporation to be the sole manufacturer and distributor of medicinal liquor, will save the government $1,000,000 a year in prohibition enforcement work, he predicted. "Failure to pass the bill will (Continued on Page 4)

Chicago Death Car Hunted By Police

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—The authorities today are searching for a small sedan, which last night raced through the streets, with a man believed to be dead huddled in the rear seat. Squads from virtually every bureau in the city were searching for the car, after it had escaped from a taxi driver, with whom it was in rear collision. The taxi driver reported to the police that he had forced the car to the curb, after the near accident, and when he opened the door, was informed to "beat it, or you may get unhealthy." He said he saw a man on the rear floor covered with a coat. Among the guests registered last night at the Hotel Carquinez were F. Gordon and wife, Vancouver, B. C.; F. C. Ellis, Reno; E. L. Leverston, Sausalito, and Mrs. Thomas Swift, Tulare.

Reed Measure Is Adopted By Senate; Third Wet Victory

Bill Asks Explanation of Moves of Under Cover Agents

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Flushed with their third victory at the present session in the congressional prohibition war, the wet forces in the senate are looking for new worlds to conquer. Their third successive triumph was scored today when the senate adopted, without debate or a record vote, the Reed resolution calling upon the treasury for an explanation of charges that "undercover dry agents" use "speakeasies" operated with government money to entrap violators of the Volstead act. The drys sat in silence when Senator James A. Reed of Missouri called up his resolution and demanded action upon it. Senator Curtis of Kansas, Republican floor leader, stepped forward and stated that there was no objection to the measure. Vice president Dawes mumbled the formal "without objection" and what had appeared to offer ground for a real fight had flattered in a twinkling. Specifically, the Reed resolution calls upon General Lincoln C. Andrews, dry czar, and David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue for "all orders and correspondence relative to the employment of what is known as undercover agents employed in the enforcement of the prohibition statutes and the activities of said agents in the entrapment of citizens." SMALL DAMAGE IS CAUSED BY BURNING OIL

A spectacular fire which for a time threatened the city of Avon and the Associated Oil refinery there last night brought out thousands of residents of the district and was put out with the use of chemicals only after a stubborn fight. Although the damage caused by the fire will only amount to a few hundred dollars, according to H. A. Fowler, plant superintendent, the fire because of its nature could not be fought with water and for a time was threatening. Chemicals were finally brought into play, however, and the flames were put out with only a small loss. An overflow pipe from one of the clarifying plants became ignited at about 9:15 last night. In a few moments a pillar of flames nearly a hundred feet high shot up into the air. The fire alarm at the plant was sounded and in a short time aid arrived from both Martinez and Concord. The entire population of Avon, according to witnesses, a great majority of those residing in Martinez and Concord rushed to the plant believing that the entire refinery was ablaze. Thousands of residents of the district flocked to the scene and traffic on the highway was tied up for several hours before the large gathering was unable to untangle itself. Fowler expressed the belief last night that the blaze had been caused by a short circuit. An investigation is being conducted by officials of the company who declared that they did not believe the blaze to be of incendiary origin.

Enrique Estrada and of his followers in a recent unsuccessful attempt to "invade" Lower California was resumed here today in Federal Court after the government had refused his plea of guilty. Estrada offered the plea for himself and his chief aides, but sought to impose the conditions of his sentence. The offer was submitted to Washington, where it was refused. It was intimated by Federal officials here that the tense situation existing between the United States and Mexico was responsible for the refusal. Gen. Estrada was formerly Mexican minister of war. Both declared they were there to pursue inquiries relative to American reports of a revolution fostered by agents of the church. After several hours of detention they were released upon the protest of the American embassy.

GUIDES TO CHIC

Wearable and exceedingly smart is the frock first pictured. For its development, one of the fine twills is used, a smart flare being given to the front by inserted godets. The fastening is at one side, surplice style, and the collar and sleeves show simple touches of embroidery. Medium size requires 2 3/4 yards 54-inch material, with 1 1/2 yard ribbon for cinching.

Fine rep and satin could be combined in the second design which has a deep V-shaped front and sleeves trimmed with cuffs to match the vestee. The skirt is laid in plaits in front, but the back hangs in straight effect. This is a charming expression of the mode for the Winter-resort season. Medium size requires 2 3/4 yards 54-inch and 1 yard 36-inch material.

Rep. John N. Gardner, Democrat of Texas, said information had come to him that speculators in medicinal whiskey supplies were behind the move for the government to take it over, so as to reap a great profit.

"I am told that less than 20 percent of the liquor on hand now is owned by persons who owned it at the time prohibition went into effect," said Gardner.

Andrews said that if congress does not establish the semi-federal monopoly of medicinal liquor, his department would have to issue permits to "perhaps 50 to 100 distillers" to manufacture a new supply.

"This would greatly increase our task of supervision of supply, but if you create this corporation we will be able to deal the bootleg traffic a blow like that we gave to the smugglers," he said.

He said there were 12,500,000 gallons of medicinal whiskey in warehouses now, and that a shrinkage from evaporation of 4,000,000 gallons was likely in the next four years. The supply on hand is barely sufficient for four and one-half years.

"It is the government's duty to see that medicinal liquor is obtainable at reasonable prices," he said.

Rep. John N. Gardner, Democrat of Texas, said information had come to him that speculators in medicinal whiskey supplies were behind the move for the government to take it over, so as to reap a great profit.

"Twinkletoes" Loves Fighter

Colleen Moore and Kenneth Harlan in a scene from "TWINKLETOES," which opens a two day engagement today on the California theatre screen.

'Twinkletoes' Brought To Life At the California

Colleen Moore brings to life one of Thomas Burke's most famous characters, "Twinkletoes," in John McCormick's latest production for First National, now at the California theatre. The little star has abandoned her dark, Dutch bob and donned golden curls in order to visualize correctly the Burke heroine for those who see "Twinkletoes."

Other Burke characters are depicted by Kenneth Harlan (who plays opposite Miss Moore), Gladys Brockwell, Warner Oland, Tully Marshall, Julianne Johnston and John Philip Kolb.

The background of the story is that world famous waterfront sum, the London Limehouse district, where the denizens of the earth from city and ocean meet in narrow, crooked streets that run down to the great city's wharves.

Charles Brabin directed the picture, which was adapted from Burke's tale by Winifred Dunn. Colleen, in her blonde curls, appears as a noted little dancer of a Limehouse music hall. The story is tense, but spiced with sparkling comedy, and it has a happy, satisfying ending that rounds out an excellent evening's entertainment for the whole family.

Colleen will recruit new thousands to her army of followers in this role.

Other features on the same program include "Napoleon, Jr.," an animal comedy; Hy Mayer's cartoon; "International News;" and Larry Canelo at the Organ.

The amount of money spent by the government in this work, was also asked in the resolution.

In a blistering arraignment of the "undercover agents" in the Senate yesterday, Reed denounced them as "men without honor" and demanded the prosecution of the agents and the "higherups" who had given orders to operate stills and "speakeasies" to trap bootleggers.

Reed indicated today that he would not let the matter rest after the report is received from the treasury department but would insist upon action by the department of justice to prosecute any "undercover agents" guilty of violating the prohibition law.

Adoption of the resolution by Senator Edward J. Edwards of New Jersey, calling for the passage of regulations under which the treasury authorizes the poisoning of industrial alcohol, marked the second victory of the wets at this session.

The first was chalked up when the senate knocked out of the treasury department appropriation bill the $500,000 fund for the payment of "undercover men."

The dries are maintaining a strategic silence. After the repeated drubbing it was indicated that no attempt would be made to bring up the drastic Goff bill to put sharper teeth in the Volstead act at this session.

Los Angeles—Western Air Express, carrying mails from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles, will raise capital from $500,000 to $2,000,000.

Overrules Demurrer In Injunction Suit On Harbor Lease

Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie, in Martinez, January 10, overruled a demurrer interposed by the Parr Terminal company to the suit instituted by Attorney Lee D. Windrem, of Richmond, to prevent leasing by the municipality of its waterfront acreage to Parr. Judge McKenzie, in overruling the demurrer, allowed the defendant 20 days in which to file an answer to Windrem's action.

Windrem charges that the city cannot legally lease its holdings on the waterfront for the municipal lease fails to make reservation in the agreement which leases property held within a state grant to the municipality.

A temporary injunction was denied by the court some time ago.

Corinne Griffith Proves Ability in 'Syncopating Sue'

Corinne Griffith proves herself the champion of the romantic working girl in "Syncopating Sue" her latest comedy vehicle, which comes to the Richmond theatre today and tomorrow.

Having won an enviable reputation in previous pictures for the manner in which she portrayed stately, dramatic and emotional roles, Miss Griffith recently turned to another type of picture and showed a talent for portraying the typical New York working girl.

"Classified," was the first of a series in which Miss Griffith enacted the role of a romantic New York store girl who meets with the instant approval of the picture-going public. Critics declared it one of the ten best pictures of the year.

In "Classified," Miss Griffith glorified the stenographer. In "Mile Modiste" she was a struggling dressmaker, and now in the same vein comes "Syncopating Sue" with Corinne cast as a song-plucker, aided by New York reviewers to be even better than her two previous comedy successes.

Directed by Richard Wallace who learned his directorial science making comedies on the Italian beach lot, Miss Griffith enacts the role of a romantic New York store piano player who yearns for a career on the stage.

This ambition and her love for a penniless orchestra drummer sets her into circumstances which while awkward and perplexing to the stage-struck girl, nevertheless prove highly amusing and entertaining to an audience.

Tom Moore, of the famous Moore triumvirate, is Miss Griffith's leading man in "Syncopating Sue," and the remainder of the cast is of equal high order, including Brockhoff, Fellowes, Joyce Compton, Lee Moran and Sunshine Hart.

Other features include "Honest Injun," a Johnny Arthur comedy, "Sportlight," and "Prizma."

Lowrie has a suit for $20,000 damages pending against the negro.

Marshall is defended by Attorney Will Roberson, and Deputy District Attorneys James F. Hay and H. E. Jacobs are prosecuting.

The jury is composed of J. F. Gardner, James A. Downing, W. A. Janke, A. H. Poage, W. F. Moffatt, Harry H. Lincoln, Charles O. Butler, H. F. Krumland, James H. Hornsby, John B. McCauskey, William Zoehner and J. A. Arrighi.

Guide to good things

GRANDMOTHER could tell, by rubbing it in her hand, whether the goods in a suit or overcoat was all-wool. Grandfather could tell good leather by the feel of it. Both had ways, or thought they had, of knowing good silver, brass or copper.

But you buy so many more things than our grandparents did, that it is almost impossible to be a judge of quality in everything you buy. In this age, only a specialist could really know even a small part of the many things used in your home, if the trade-marks and trade-names were left off them.

Advertising has taken the place of grandfather's and grandmother's knowledge. You may be sure a thing advertised is as represented. If it is not, the person making it and the one selling it will quickly lose your confidence and your patronage. People do not dare misrepresent in their advertising—to do so is to invite closed factories and stores.

The advertisements are your guide to good things. Whatever you need, there is an advertisement in these pages that will take you to it—just the kind you want.

Husband Held In $1000 Bail For Attack On Wife

John Ellis of this city is at the county jail in Martinez awaiting trial on a charge of making threats against the life of his wife, Mrs. Rosa Ellis. Ellis was arrested on Monday afternoon and taken before Justice of the Peace A. H. McKinnon, sitting in the court of Justice John Roth. Bail was set at $1,000. Unable to raise the sum, Ellis was turned over to the county authorities.

According to Constable Arthur A. Alstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis appeared in court on Monday and after the man had agreed to be peaceable they returned to their home. A few hours later, Alstrom declared, Mrs. Ellis rushed into the court and asked for her husband's arrest, alleging that he had attacked her with a butcher knife. She was unhurt.

SPEED OF LIGHT IS MEASURED BY MICHELSON

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Dr. Albert A. Michelson, physicist of the University of Chicago, was busy today with preparations for extending his already famous experiments in measuring the speed of light.

The scientist, who was the first American in his field to win the Nobel prize, has already demonstrated that the speed of light, according to the most exact figures now available, is 186,173 miles a second. He himself arrived at that figure after weeks of experiments last summer with revolving mirrors on Mount Wilson and Mount San Antonio, a distance of 22 miles. Before that, the scientific world generally accepted 186,000 miles as the approximate speed of light beams.

Dr. Michelson said today that his latest figure, after thorough checking, is probably not more than a mile at variance from the exact speed of light. He is now preparing to make a new series of observations with his revolving mirrors placed on Mount Wilson and Mount San Jacinto, 82 miles apart. If visibility is good, Dr. Michelson is confident that he will come still nearer to measuring the precise velocity of light and reduce the variant to yards instead of a mile or so.

It was upon the early experiments made by this world renowned scientist that Einstein laid the foundation for his famous theory of relativity.

Man Held in Widow Murder

Friendless except for his mother and repudiated by his wife, Harold F. Webster faces Mineola, N. Y., grand jury on a charge of killing his rich mother-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Galloway. Webster, who confessed the crime, retraced movements in murder area. He is shown (left) at spot where he threw Jimmy with which murder was committed over fence in outskirts of Hempstead, near Mill Road. Jimmy has not been found. Sgt. John Feeley is handcuffed to him.

STOCKHOLDERS SUED FOR TAX ON FORD STOCK

to Great Britain who is defending the case against Alexander W. Gregg, youthful solicitor general of the bureau of internal revenue. Gregg will make no statement until the appellants have closed their case.

"Business will not be safe in this country if it is to be assumed that each new commissioner of internal revenue may, as he takes office, change the valuation of any concern's stock after it has been fairly and impartially arrived at, unless just proof of fraud or error is produced," declared Davis.

"Daniel C. Roper, the commissioner in 1919 when Mr. Ford decided to acquire full control of his company and employed the Old Colony Trust company of Boston to buy it for him without disclosing him as the principal, caused the market value of Ford stock as of March 1913, to be set at $94.89 per share.

"Our clients sold at prices approximately $3,000 to $4,000 above this figure and paid in income taxes on this profit and on dividends received in the last year they held the stock a total of $22,000,000.

"Repeatedly they were assured that their income tax returns for 1919 had been approved. They stood up under repeated audits, both by government men and private agencies. Our clients made large investments, gave great sums to charity and in other ways disposed of their proceeds upon the assurance from the government that they had paid in full.

"For three years following the last adjustment in 1922 they remained undisturbed. Then six days before the statute of limitations took effect, in March, 1925, these gigantic jeopardy assessments were levied."

Davis branded as "preposterous" the government claim that the market value of the Ford Motor company in 1919 was only $71,000,000 instead of the $190,000,000 fixed by Roper. He said he would show that the company was earning $26,000,000 annually in 1913, when its production was 40,000 cars annually instead of the 7,000 daily it has now reached.

He also referred to the threat Henry Ford made in 1919 during a visit to Los Angeles, at the time the minority holders were trying to reach an agreement with him, "that if they do not pay my figure I will withdraw, build a new plant and turn out a car better than the present one for $200 less."

The hearings are being held in a ballroom of the Hotel Statler which was thronged today with an eager crowd. Many women were present.

The appellants beside Senator Couzens are the estates of John F. and Horace E. Dodge, the estate of Philip H. Gray, Paul and David Gray, his brothers John W. Anderson, Horace H. Rackham, and Mrs. Doretta Hauss, sister of the senator. She lent him $100 to invest in 1907. For this she received ultimately 20 shares, on which the government now wants added an $83,000 tax.

John M. Sternhagen of Chicago is presiding at the hearing. Sitting with him are J. J. Marquette of Washington and Ernest Van Fossen of Ohio. They will continue the hearings in Washington, before the full board, next month.

PULLMAN FIVE WINS IN FIRST P. A. A. GAME

By THE CLUB

The Pullman champions of the city league were minus their usual goal eyes last night in the Junior high school gymnasium in the first game here in the P. A. A. league.

In spite of this fact they were good enough to swat the Berkeley Lightning club down the line by a score of 15 to 8 in a razzle dazzie game that thrilled every fan.

In the preliminary game of the evening "Doc" Seawright's 120 pound squad went down before the Jewish Community Center team by a score of 18 to 13 in a fast and furious game.

These games marked something new for the local fans. There were no intermissions between quarters, instead each half was twenty minutes long and it speeded up the game a good deal.

Of the eight points made by the Oakland team, five of them were made through fouls.

By this it cannot be indicated that the Pullman team went on their way jabbing right and left and making fouls. Instead there was a good referee that saw 'em all on both sides.

Said referee was Ross, captain of the 1922 O. A. C. basketball squad. He was good, you can hand him that.

Huzefka was high man for the local team with seven points while Bonham, Gadherry, Dalley and Dyer each made two points.

In the preliminary game the local team kept in the lead but as the pace became grueling they dropped behind to defeat. This will not place them out of the running, however.

The local's lineup in both games were Barberie and Tamm, guards; Bonham, center; Huzefka and Dalley, forwards; Cornell, sub-guard; Gadherry, sub-center; Dyer, sub-forward, and Gillan, sub-forward.

HIGH CAGERS TO MEET ALAMEDA HIGH FRIDAY

Barring rain, snow, wind, tidal waves, earthquakes or conflicting dates, the Richmond high school will meet the Alameda high school gymnasium Friday afternoon in a hoop contest. The "B" teams will furnish the preliminary.

This will be the first time this year that Coach Ivan W. Hill has had a chance to show what his team can do.

Hill will not commit himself as to the possibilities of victory. The said I. W. generally sits back in a corner when asked what his team will do. Will it win? "Maybe if they're lucky," says I. W.

But he says that before every game and evidently he does not yearn for the laurels of a prophet. The local team feels sure of a victory but—they are further assured that they will have one great big battle to win.

Local Jr. High Teams Defeated

The first basketball games of the season for Coach W. L. "Doc" Seawright's eighty-five and one hundred and ten pound basketball squads ended disastrously. The Garfield 85 defeated the local team 11 to 1 and the Garfield 110s won by a score of 5 to 0 at the Garfield courts yesterday.

STANDARD OIL AND LAMOINE FIVES TO MEET

The LaMoine Druggists will tonight with the Standard Oil hoppers tonight at the Junior high school gymnasium in hopes of getting in touch with the city championship.

The Pullman shops, leader of the league by virtue of losing only one game, feel secure of coping the pennant for the second time but much water will flow under the bridge before the championship is decided.

The next best bet is the Standard Oil team and they have lost two games to the Pullman team. If LaMoine can get over the Oilers tonight they will have a chance at the Pullman team for the first place or perhaps may nose them out.

The Giant Powder team expects to take the Santa Fe Railroaders down the line at 7:30.

Thursday night the Mercantile trust will play Ben Maliks and at 8:30 the Pullman champs meet McRackens.

Will Enjoy a Happy New Year Blood Test Shows Negative

Dec. 28, 1926. At the beginning of last summer my blood test showed two positives; that is two "x's." It had previously been four "x's" (positives). After I failed to get relief by treatments of hypodermic shots I decided to give the Fong Wan Herbs a trial. I drank the herbs for only one month. Nevertheless when I had a blood test taken again on Dec. 24, 1926, the test showed negative. My blood is thoroughly cleaned and is O. K. at last. I shall certainly enjoy a Happy New Year. Because of my attitude for the Fong Wan Herb Treatment, I am glad to give this testimonial.

Republican Women Start Early On Presidential Organization "Knitting" For Next Election

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Republican women are going to do their 1928 presidential organization "knitting" early.

Under the call of Mrs. Alvin T. Hert, vice-chairman of the Republican national committee, the first national conference of Republican women leaders ever held will get under way here tomorrow.

Seventy-five of them—national committeewomen, state vice-chairmen, and heads of republican women's clubs—will discuss organization work behind closed doors.

There will be no formal speeches, no resolutions, no action taken, but every woman attending is expected to contribute to the conference the experience of her state for the benefit of other states.

Leading Republican officials will address one of the meetings, but Mrs. Hert will open the conference with an informal talk and the discussions will then begin.

Among those who will attend are:

Mrs. Florence Collins Porter of Pasadena, vice chairman of the California State Republican committee; Mrs. Anna Wolcott of Denver, national committeewoman for Colorado; Mrs. W. K. Dupont of Wilmington, committeewoman for Delaware; Mrs. George S. Williams of Savannah, committeewoman for Georgia; Mrs. McDill McCormick of Chicago, committeewoman for Illinois; Miss Dorothy Cunningham of Indianapolis, committeewoman for Indiana; Mrs. William H. Chase of Riverdale, Md.; Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird of East Walpole, committeewoman for Massachusetts; Miss Blina M. West of Port Huron, committeewoman for Michigan; Mrs. Manley L. Fosseen of Minneapolis, committeewoman for Minnesota; Mrs. Grace Semple Burdette, committeewoman for Missouri; Mrs. Lewis S. Thompson of Red Bank, committeewoman for New Jersey; Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, committeewoman for New York; Miss Sarah Schuyler Butler, vice-chairman of the New York Republican State committee; Mrs. Wilma Sinclair Levan of Steubenville, committeewoman for Ohio; Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton of Philadelphia, committeewoman for Pennsylvania; Mrs. Charles J. Steedman of Providence, committeewoman for Rhode Island; Mrs. John Wesley Gaines of Nashville, committeewoman for Tennessee; Mrs. J. C. Griswold of San Antonio, committeewoman for Texas; Mrs. Hert is committeewoman for Kentucky.

Murder Baffles Naples Police

NAPLES, Jan. 11.—The Naples police were baffled today by the mysterious murder of the Italian American money lender, Andrea Paracollo, who recently returned here from the United States where he lived twenty-five years.

A heavy, newly built box containing the corpse of a strangled man poorly dressed was discovered this morning on a deserted street by the police and tonight it was identified as the body of Paracollo. The police believe that revenge was the motive for the crime.

GET RID OF YOUR FAT

Thousands of others have gotten rid of theirs by my simple and efficient method of fat reduction without starvation diet or burdensome exercise, often at a very rapid rate and WITHOUT PAYMENT until reduction has taken place.

I am a licensed practicing physician and have made a careful study of the physiological requirements of the human body. This has enabled me to select such ingredients and in such proportion as in my opinion will produce not only a loss of weight without harm and an improvement in health, but with it an alleviation of all of the troublesome symptoms which frequently accompany and often are a direct result of overweight, such as shortness of breath on slight exertion, palpitation of the heart, etc., not to speak of the relief from the embarrassment of being too stout. Stout persons suffering from such diseases as Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Asthma and high blood pressure are greatly relieved by a reduction of their superfluous fat.

My treatment will relieve that depressed, tired, sleepy feeling, giving you the renewed energy and vigor which come as a result of the loss of superfluous fat. If you are overweight do not postpone but sit down right now and send for my FREE TRIAL TREATMENT and my plan whereby I am to be PAID ONLY AFTER REDUCTION HAS TAKEN PLACE if you so desire.

During the reconstruction days following the Civil War and the other, who admitted under persistent questioning by Jesse Martin, district attorney of Tarrant county, that he had studied for the Baptist ministry, two years at Howard Payne college, Brownwood, Texas.

W. R. Stowers, a true son of the soil, was about to be accepted by the state when W. P. Scott, one of the special prosecutors suddenly asked him if he belonged to the Klan.

He replied that he didn't, but that his father had. He was later excused by the court.

W. P. (Wild Bill) McLean, chief of the battery of special prosecutors retained by H. C. Meacham, mayor of Fort Worth, to aid district attorneys Jesse Martin of Fort Worth and J. D. Moore, of Austin, in prosecuting the clergyman, has contended ever since Chippis was shot to death by the fundamentalist leader that the Klan angle would crop out sooner or later.

His contention was partly borne out last September when Rev. Lloyd P. Bloodworth, at the time grand dragon of the Texas realm of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, said the hooded order was behind Norris to a man.

Norris, however, denies membership in the Klan but McLean again pointed out today that Dr. Norris is a frequent speaker at the Klan hall in Fort Worth and besides subscribing to the principles of Klan-Craft, turned his powerful church radio over to Rev. Bloodworth who spoke many times in behalf of the pastor's cause.

The preacher, an arch foe of the evolution theory and a bosom companion of the late William Jennings Bryan, moved his chair towards the witness stand as W. A. Macuse, Austin real estate operator, admitted he had studied for the Baptist ministry and leaned back with a smile, that bespoke satisfaction as the venieman said he didn't believe man sprang from a monkey.

Norris has repeatedly attacked the Southwestern Seminary with teaching students the evolution theory. He was challenged by the state and excused.

Impression that Norris has flooded Travis county with copies of the Searchlight, official weekly tabloid publication of the first Baptist church which he edits, was created by W. P. Scott, one of the special prosecutors, during his examination of veniemen.

Several of the veniemen said they had received copies of the religious weekly through the mails although they weren't subscribers or had never asked for sample copies.

To the state's question, "did you read the Searchlight?" the venieman's usual answer was "no, I threw it away without removing the wrapper."

At no time did the defense attempt to discredit this impression of the 22 veniemen who failed to qualify during the day, several brought disqualification upon them suit that a restraining order be issued to prevent her husband from disposing of any of his property. This order was granted by the court yesterday. She also requested that a receiver be named to take charge of the community property pending the outcome of the suit. Presiding Judge Wood, who issued the restraining order, also ruled that Chaplin must show cause why the receiver should not be appointed. A hearing on this question will be held at 10 a. m. next Monday. Property estimated variously at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 is involved.

Chaplin is en route to New York on "important business," according to his attorney, who refused to give the date he is due to arrive there. It is reported, however, that the noted film laughmaker left here Sunday or Monday aboard "The Chief," a Santa Fe limited train.

Friends of the comedian predicted here today that when his answer is filed, it will create a national sensation. They said that Chaplin, like his lawyer, is also in a battling mood, and not disposed to negotiate for a settlement out of court.

Unless he changes his plans and hurries back to Los Angeles without completing the journey to New York, Chaplin can hardly return here in time for the receivership hearing next Monday.

Mrs. Chaplin remained today at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Curry, in Beverly Hills, where she went after the separation.

CHICKENS STOLEN

W. W. Shepard, 430 Nevins avenue reported to the local police last night that two hens were stolen from his chicken pen last night. The fowls are valued at $4.

selves with admissions they had formed opinions of the preacher's guilt or innocence and many others were excluded because of their refusal to subscribe to the death penalty which the state announced last Sunday it would demand.

The prosecution, however, was lax in its questioning of veniemen as to their opinion on the supreme penalty and it was the defense that first asked, "Do you believe in the electric chair and the taking of human life by law?"

QUEEN MARIE IN FIGHT FOR BALKAN THRONE

(By Universal Service)
By KARL H. VON WEIGAND
LIEKIN, Jan. 11.—A three-cornered royal family fight is going on in Bucharest for the Rumanian throne, the principals being Queen Marie, Ex-crown Prince Carol and the latter's five-year-old son, Prince Michael. The fight is becoming intensified as the condition of King Ferdinand grows worse, according to news from the Rumanian capital.

Prof. Gerota, King Ferdinand's specialist, has arrived at Vienna from Bucharest to consult with Prof. Hohenack and other specialists to aid the sinking king. On the report of Prof. Gerota, who examined the king on New Year's day, that the king's cancer is making rapid headway, the specialists hold out no hope. That is also understood to be Prof. Gerota's own opinion but he left Bucharest to consult the other specialists at the request of Premier Averescu for the moral effect on the king.

King Ferdinand weeps much of the time, it is said, over his approaching end and increasingly urges that Prince Carol be sent for. Queen Marie has not yet succeeded in getting the power into her hands.

Greely Watch Highly Prized

(By Universal Service)
CARLSON, Nev., Jan. 11.—"Keep your seat, Mr. Greely, I'll get you there on time," Mrs. Sadie Benton Manton, old resident of this city, is the possessor of an old watch upon which these now famous words of Hank Monk, the pioneer stage driver, are engraved along with his name and that of the donor, Horace Greely, the eminent editor of early days. Mrs. Manton prizes highly this old relic of Nevada's stage coach days and enjoys exhibiting it to visitors. The watch is a ponderous affair and looks odd alongside the miniature time pieces of the present day. It was presented to the old stage driver in commemoration of the thrills he gave the famous editor on one of his wild trips.

Sacasa Refuses To Negotiate With the U. S.

(By Universal Service)
PUERTO CABEZAS, Nicaragua, Jan. 11.—Any mediation in the Nicaraguan situation will have to be made through the president of Costa Rica and not through the United States, Dr. Juan Sacasa, leader of the Liberals announced today. His statement was made in reply to an inquiry concerning reports that the Liberals had sued for peace and that Admiral Latimer, U. S. N. was acting as the mediator.

"The Liberal party has never refused an honorable understanding for the re-establishment of peace. At present the offer of pending mediation of the president of Costa Rica has been accepted. Since January 1, I am constrained from considering other propositions for the solution of the problem," he said.
